

Professor Dicky Y. K. Shek

BEng(Hons), MBA, DBA

Vice President
GBA Business School

Office: +852-38520877 | Email: shek@gbabs.hk

Professor Dicky Shek is a scholar cum business leader and a veteran in the technology industry with more than 25 years of executive and academic experience for Greater China and APJ regions. Before joining the academia, Professor Shek has worked for a number of start-ups and five Fortune 100 companies, including IBM, Compaq Computer, Dell, Cisco Systems, and NTT Group.

Currently, Prof. Shek is the Vice President of GBA Business School, Professor of Practice (Management Information System) in the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Adjunct Professor of Guangzhou Huashang College, External Examiner of HKU SPACE, Academic Advisor of Edvantage Institute Australia, Executive Advisory Board Member of Greater Bay Area MedTech Association.

Prof. Shek is a seasoned speaker, trainer, coach, mentor, judge and advisor for a wide of range of seminars, workshops, entrepreneurship competitions, incubation programmes, public and private organisations. He has broad interests in teaching, research and consultancy, including

- Artificial Intelligence
- Business Intelligence, Blockchain, Business Model Analysis
- Cloud Computing, Cyber Security, CRM, Corporate Social Responsibility
- Data Science, Digital Transformation, Digital Marketing, Design Thinking
- E-Commerce, Entrepreneurship, ESG, Executive Coaching
- FinTech, Feng Shui
- GBA Policy & Development
- IoT, ISO Standards
- Knowledge Management
- Smart Cities
- Virtual Reality

Prof. Shek holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) from The University of Hong Kong (HKU), an MBA from The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK), and a DBA from The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU). He has completed an executive program at the IMD Switzerland, and been awarded as a certified quality lead auditor by British Standards Institution (BSI).